Brief Note about the Activity:

The class presentation by Grade VI C on the theme “Trapped in the Screen: Are We Losing Our Childhood?” was a meaningful and eye-opening assembly. Students beautifully combined skits, songs, mime, and dance to portray the dangers of screen addiction and the fading charm of childhood joys. The performances captivated the audience and left them reflecting on their own relationship with technology. The event was honored by the presence of Principal Sir, teachers, and parents, who praised the students for their creativity, teamwork, and the socially relevant message delivered with such maturity.

Outcome of the Activity:

- Students developed awareness about the adverse effects of excessive screen time.
- Built communication and presentation skills through performances.
- Imbued team spirit and creativity while preparing different segments of the program.
- Gained moral values on balancing technology and real-life interactions.
- Boosted their confidence and stage presence.
- Learned to cherish real childhood experiences and relationships.

Dear Parents,
Greetings!

We are delighted to announce and invite you for a special morning assembly by the students of Class VI C on the theme "Trapped In The Screen: Are We Loosing Our Childhood ". This event will focus on raising awareness about the increasing influence of digital screens on our daily lives, relationships, and mental well-being. Students will reflect on how excessive screen time affects real-life play, creativity, and emotional development.

Objectives:

- To create awareness about excessive screen time among children.
- To help students reflect on the importance of real-life play and interaction.
- To promote healthy habits that balance technology and childhood activities.
- To reconnect children with nature, outdoor games, and creativity beyond the screen.

The assembly will include a variety of theme-based performances and presentations that reflect- "childhood is not found behind screens, but in moments of play, laughter, and connection."

- Date & Day of Event: 22 August 2025, Friday
- Time: 08:00 a.m.
- Venue: AV Room

This student-led initiative offers our young learners a platform to creatively express their commitment to protecting the innocence of their childhood . Your presence and support will inspire and encourage them.

Regards,
BPSG
