EVENT –Pitter Patter Show House
‘Show and Tell’ The importance of being Important.

Show and tell isn't just about giving the kids a reason to bring toys to class; each child's social, emotional and language skills will grow and develop from this activity as the children learn to use descriptive language, practice listening skills and share their special items with others. Sharing prized possessions with peers makes for a fun and comfortable learning arena for everyone involved

Therefore, the BPSG is coming up with an event named 'Pitter Patter Show House' on 24th April 2023 (Monday) as an opportunity to grow and develop social, emotional and language skills.

Activity during Event
Pitter Patter Show House- Students will perform activity on the stage by showing their favourite object. They will introduce themselves and will tell what they have brought. They will tell the story behind the object.
