CLUB EVENT - G.K AND CURRENT AFFAIRS
-QUIZICAL SUSPECT-

Dear Parents, Greetings
of the Day!

We are proud to celebrate the 76th Independence Day. Since 1947 when the country became independent, India celebrated its Independence Day on 15 August every year. While celebrating this day we cannot overlook the sacrifices made by our freedom fighters. let us take a moment to acknowledge the efforts taken by our freedom fighters to free India from Britain's hold through an exciting quiz conducted by the G.K and Current affairs club.

The event promises an engaging and intellectually stimulating experience for all participants. With the above vision this event called Quizical Suspect is going to be held on 16 August, 2023 i.e on Wednesday for the G.K and Current Affairs club students, in their club period, with the aim to enhance their knowledge, logical thinking, Patriotism, dedication towards nation. The quiz will include direct questions and source-based questions where students will be using their analytical skills.

Key Highlights of the Event:
A thrilling quiz format to commemorate our freedom fighters and their efforts
Team-based competition to encourage collaboration and teamwork
Opportunity to showcase knowledge, Patriotism dedication, analytical skills etc.
