Grade IX' assembly

Keep the cycle going.

Researchers have discovered that the more people do acts of altruism, the higher they raise their self-esteem and thereby the higher they also raise their happiness. Researchers call this: helper's high. By doing this good stuff, these people then continue to feel even better about themselves. It's the perfect gift for someone you want to cheer on or cheer up – including yourself! Because When you do something good for someone else your brain's pleasure centers lights up .

Objective: Keeping the importance of good behaviour in an individual's life, Grade IX is organizing a special assembly on May 04, 2023 to exhibit how good deed of ours play a vital role to make us feel good or contented in our life.
