WORKSHOP REPORT

EVENT NAME- Conduction of David Battery of Differential Abilities

CLASS- X

Objective:

The primary objectives of the workshop on the David Battery of Differential Abilities (DBDA) were as follows:

- To assess the aptitude of Class 10 students using the DBDA test.
- To familiarize students with the process of aptitude testing and its significance in career planning.
- To identify individual strengths and areas for improvement in various cognitive domains such as verbal, numerical, and abstract reasoning.
- To provide guidance based on the test results to help students make informed decisions about their academic and career paths.

Participants:

- Students of class X

Methodology:

The DBDA test was administered to the students in a controlled classroom environment. Instructions for each subtest were provided to ensure clarity, and adequate time was allocated for each section.

Learning Outcomes:

- Students gained an understanding of their aptitude across different cognitive domains, including verbal, numerical, and abstract reasoning abilities.
- Students developed an awareness of the importance of aptitude testing in aligning academic choices with career aspirations.
