Brief note about the event:

The Ecoquest Carnival for Class 4 was designed to instill social responsibility in students by fostering awareness about the importance of sustainable practices to save the environment. The event aimed to educate students on conservation and environmental care through interactive activities. Students created models showcasing various environment conservation practices, encouraging innovative thinking around sustainability. Best Out of Waste activity focused on recycling and reusing materials to create something new, promoting waste reduction and creative problem-solving. Students presented poems, speeches, and stories highlighting the importance of conserving water, sparking discussions on responsible water usage. The quiz tested students' knowledge about nature and the environment, helping them understand the interdependence of living organisms and ecosystems.

Overall, the Ecoquest Carnival successfully aimed to inspire students to take action towards environmental preservation, instilling values of sustainability and responsibility toward nature.

Outcome of the Event:

- Students gain a deeper understanding of the pressing environmental issues facing the planet and the urgency of addressing them.
- Foster collaboration and engagement in environmental stewardship.
- Encourage critical thinking about human impact on the environment and promote solutions for a sustainable future.
- Enhanced team work and collaboration.
