EVENT REPORT

Event Name: Labour Day

Day & Date-01- 05- 2025 (Thursday)

Category: General

Objective of the Activity:

The objective of the Labour Day celebration in school was to foster respect and appreciation for the labor community among students, raise awareness about their contributions and instill values of gratitude and empathy towards those who work tirelessly. School celebrated Labour Day to acknowledge the hard work and dedication of the working class. The celebration aimed to educate students about the importance of laborers in society, encourage respect for their efforts, and emphasize the significance of recognizing and appreciating the contributions of workers to the community and the economy.

No. of Participants: Students with Staff members

Brief note about Event:

Labour Day Celebration: - Students were encouraged to express appreciation through speech, poem, a special assembly, and offering refreshments and gifts to the support staff. The celebrations served to educate students about the significance of labor, promote unity within the school community, and highlight the dignity of labor.

Outcome of Activity:

1. Fostering respect and appreciation for the labor community among students. The celebrations aim to create a better understanding of the contributions and struggles of workers, and instil values of gratitude and empathy towards them.
2. Encouraging students to express gratitude towards the support staff. Through activities like speeches, poems, a special assembly, and by providing refreshments and gifts, students learn to acknowledge the tireless efforts of workers such as maids, peons, guards, and other support staff.
3. Emphasizing the dignity of labour and the role of workers in the smooth functioning of institutions. The celebrations highlight how workers are the "real architects of our society" and their contributions are invaluable.
4. Fostering a sense of community and unity among students, teachers, and the labour force. The celebrations bring together the entire school community to collectively recognize and appreciate the working class.

Principal's Speech For Labour Day

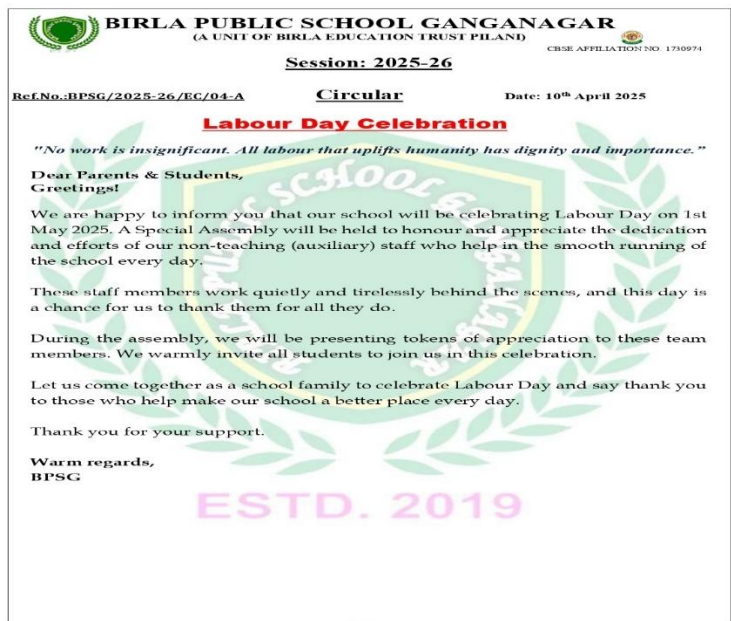

The Principal of Birla Public School Ganganagar, Sri Ganagnagar addressed the students and staff on the occasion of Labour Day.

- He highlighted the importance of honoring the hardworking people who help run the school and society.
- The Principal encouraged students to think of a better word than "labour" – one that shows respect, dignity, and gratitude.
- Expressed heartfelt gratitude to the school's workers and support staff, including cleaners, gardeners, and kitchen staff.

- Most importantly, the Principal stressed that the best way to thank workers is by listening to their needs, concerns, and suggestions.
- The speech ended with a message to make Labour Day truly meaningful by carrying forward gratitude in everyday life.
