Birla Public School Ganganagar celebrated Gandhi Jayanti and Dussehra with immense enthusiasm and cultural vibrance. The programme reflected the values of truth, non-violence, and the triumph of good over evil through a range of thoughtful and festive performances by the students.

The celebration commenced with the welcoming of parents, followed by the traditional lamp-lighting ceremony. Students of Classes IV A and IV B presented an engaging act on Mahatma Gandhi, highlighting his life, principles, and role in India's freedom struggle. A meaningful speech on Lal Bahadur Shastri added to the patriotic spirit of the event. A special highlight of the programme was the delightful enactment of Ram, Sita, Lakshman, and Hanuman by the students of Nursery to Class II, captivating the audience with their innocence and expressions. The students of Class V B further showcased the festive spirit through Ram Utsav and Garba.
