"A Journey of Diligence Rewarded"

In a proud celebration of academic brilliance, the Birla Education Trust (BET), Pilani, hosted the Felicitation Ceremony 2025, recognising the exceptional achievements of students from its various institutions. Among the honourees were the high achievers from Birla Public School Ganganagar (BPSG), who were felicitated for their outstanding performance in the AISSE (Class X) and AISSCE (Class XII) examinations.

The event began with a soulful invocation and the ceremonial lighting of the lamp. Dignitaries of the Trust and school leaders felicitated the meritorious students with medals, certificates, and mementos, appreciating their dedication and perseverance.

From Class X, Rajat Kasnia secured the highest score with an impressive 97%, followed by Aanya Singh (96%), Dheeraj Kasniya (92%), Shrishtika (91%), and Harsh Hari Nandan (90%), all of whom demonstrated exemplary academic commitment.

In the Commerce stream of Class XII, the achievers included Amanat Singh (86%), Nistha Mittal (85%), Naman Nyol (83%), Vansh Gupta (77%), and Mahakdeep Kaur (75%), who showcased consistent hard work and focus.

The Humanities stream was led by Ridhima Rinwa with a remarkable 97%, followed by Parineeta Saharan (95%), Liza Jiyani (93%), Komalpreet Kaur Dhillon (89%), and Mayank Saharan (64%) – each reflecting a strong academic spirit.

Speaking on the occasion, the dignitaries congratulated the students and said, "These young achievers are a reflection of disciplined effort and focused learning. Their success is not just a personal milestone but an inspiration for all."

Dr. Nitesh Kumar Singh, Principal of Birla Public School Ganganagar, expressed immense pride in the students' accomplishments and acknowledged the relentless efforts of the faculty in guiding them towards excellence. The ceremony concluded with a group photograph and a sense of shared pride among all present, marking yet another milestone in the academic legacy of Birla Public School Ganganagar under the esteemed banner of the Birla Education Trust, Pilani.
