Class IV
Tales in Frame

Date - 22 September 2025

Dear Parents & Students,
Greetings!

We are delighted to announce an exciting and creative opportunity for you – Story Board Activity 'Tales in Frame'! This unique event invites you to work in groups, where you will craft a visual narrative through a storyboard and present your creation to the class. It's a wonderful way to combine imagination, teamwork, and storytelling skills!

Event Details:
Date: 7 October 2025
Day: Tuesday
Venue: Classroom

Objectives:

- Collaborate in groups to design a captivating storyboard.
- Illustrate key moments of your story through thoughtful drawings and descriptions.
- Present your storyboard to the class, bringing your story to life through engaging narration.
- Enhance your creativity, teamwork, and public speaking abilities.

Guidelines:

- Group size of 4-5 students.
- Your storyboard can belong to any genre – be it adventure, myth, personal experience, or an entirely original creation.
- Use illustrations, images, and concise descriptions to represent the key scenes of your story.
- The presentation should last between 3 to 5 minutes.
- While presenting, narrate the story based on your storyboard – refrain from reading aloud and instead, share the story in your own words.

We eagerly anticipate the creative and imaginative stories that will unfold through your collective efforts. Prepare to embark on this exciting Tales in Frame journey, where your ideas will take shape and captivate your audience.

We look forward to your wonderful presentations!

Warm Regards,
BPSG
