Class 3 B Total No. of Students: 29

No. of Participants: 29 (No absentees)

Brief Note about the Activity:

Class III celebrated Theatre Day with full participation from all 24 students. The event aimed to make reading fun and improve speaking, presentation, and teamwork skills through creative performances. Students presented stories using puppets, skits, dialogue delivery, and dramatic expressions, incorporating elements like voice modulation, props, and gestures. The non-competitive event encouraged confidence, creativity, and a deeper connection with books. All performances were appreciated, and special mentions were given for outstanding effort and creativity. It was a joyful and enriching experience for all.

Outcome of the Activity:

- Improved Expression and Confidence
Students practiced speaking clearly and with expression in front of an audience.
- Creative Use of Drama
They used puppets, costumes, and actions to tell stories in exciting ways.
- Teamwork and Cooperation
Many activities involved working in pairs or groups, which taught cooperation and sharing ideas.
- Love for Reading and Performing
Theatre Day made reading more enjoyable and helped students connect with books in a new way.

Results:

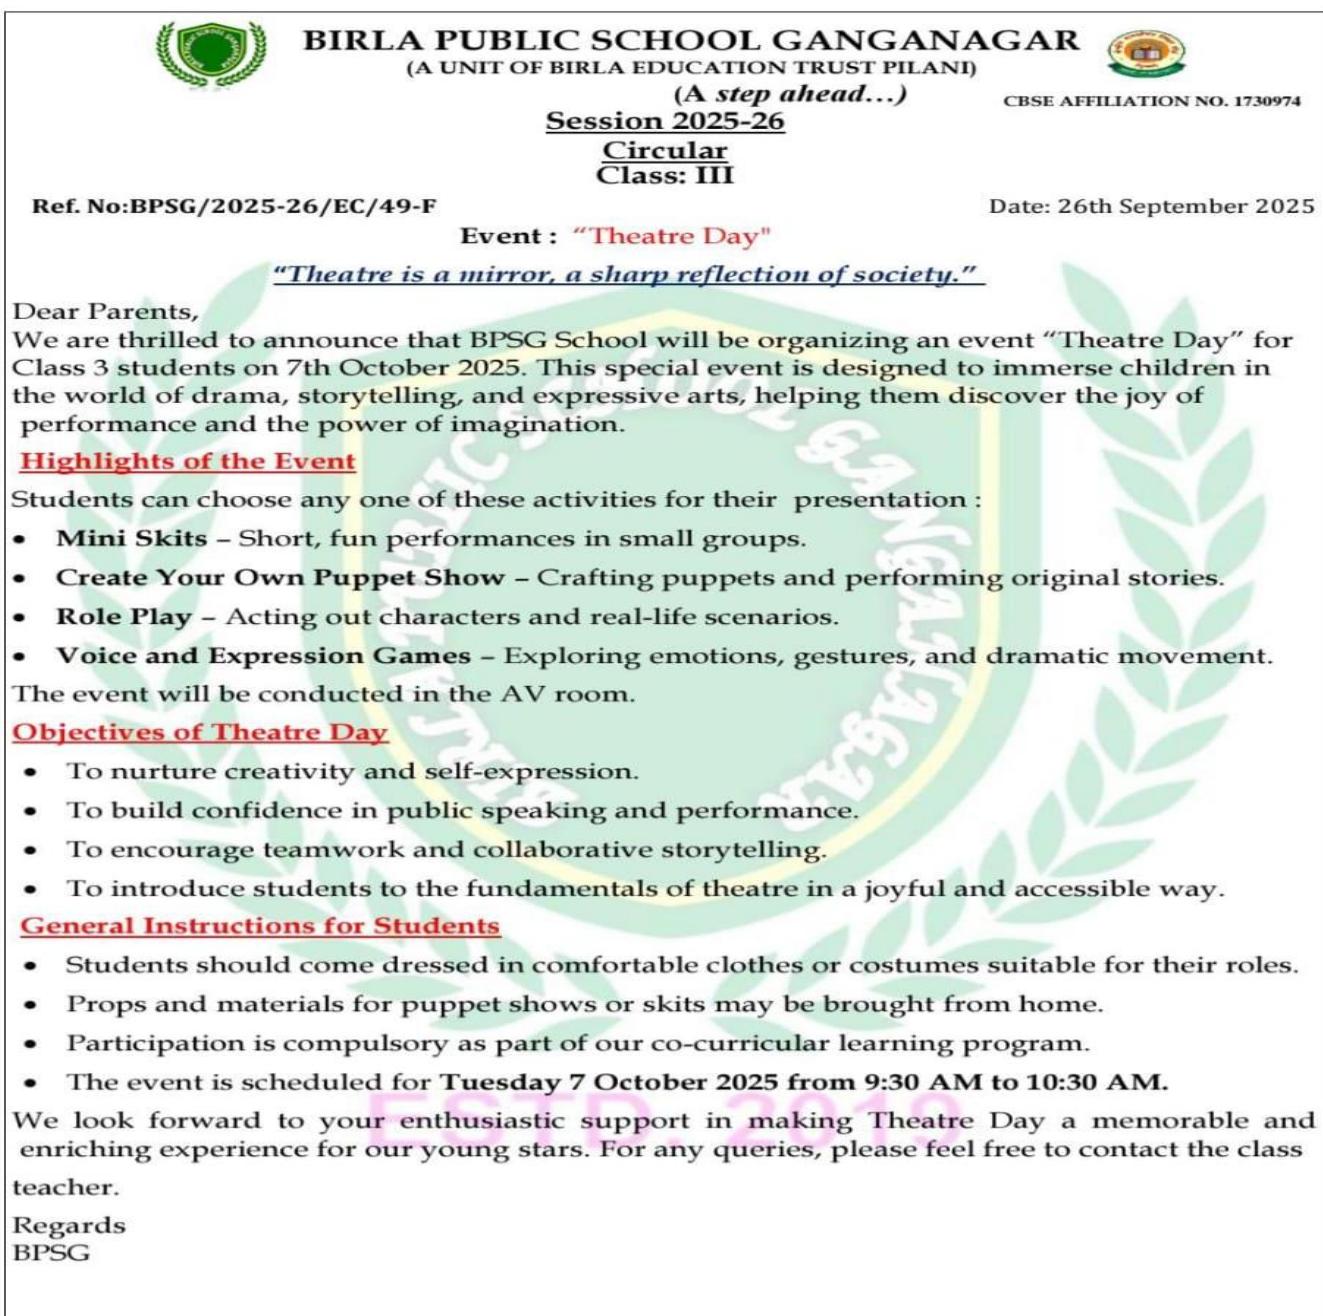

The event was non-competitive and focused on participation, creativity, and enjoyment. All performances were appreciated for their originality, effort, and enthusiasm. Special mentions were given to participants that displayed excellent content creativity, delivery and opinion.

Conclusion:

The event proved more than a display – it became a meaningful learning experience. Students reflected on books not just in terms of plot, but in the way characters changed, how messages in books related to their lives. They expressed themselves in ways they had not tried before: performing, drawing, speaking. Confidence among students increased.

"Theatre is a mirror, a sharp reflection of society."

Dear Parents,

We are thrilled to announce that BPSG School will be organizing an event "Theatre Day" for Class 3 students on 7th October 2025. This special event is designed to immerse children in the world of drama, storytelling, and expressive arts, helping them discover the joy of performance and the power of imagination.

Highlights of the Event

Students can choose any one of these activities for their presentation :

- Mini Skits – Short, fun performances in small groups.
- Create Your Own Puppet Show – Crafting puppets and performing original stories.
- Role Play – Acting out characters and real-life scenarios.
- Voice and Expression Games – Exploring emotions, gestures, and dramatic movement.

The event will be conducted in the AV room.

Objectives of Theatre Day

- To nurture creativity and self-expression.
- To build confidence in public speaking and performance.
- To encourage teamwork and collaborative storytelling.
- To introduce students to the fundamentals of theatre in a joyful and accessible way.

General Instructions for Students

- Students should come dressed in comfortable clothes or costumes suitable for their roles.
- Props and materials for puppet shows or skits may be brought from home.
- Participation is compulsory as part of our co-curricular learning program.
- The event is scheduled for Tuesday 7 October 2025 from 9:30 AM to 10:30 AM.

We look forward to your enthusiastic support in making Theatre Day a memorable and enriching experience for our young stars. For any queries, please feel free to contact the class teacher.
