LITERACY AND LOGOPHILE CLUB EVENT REPORT

Day & Date: Wednesday, 10 September 2025

Event Name: "Poetry Duel"

Total Students - 09

Present - 07

Objective of the Activity:

- To encourage students to express their thoughts and emotions through poetry.
- To enhance creativity, imagination, and spontaneity in literary expression.
- To build confidence in public speaking and performance.
- To promote collaboration and networking in a vibrant literary atmosphere.

Brief Note of the Activity:

The Literacy and Logophile Club of Birla Public School Ganganagar organized an enthralling event, "Poetry Duel," on 10 September 2025 in the Library. The event was designed to provide a platform for budding poets to showcase their literary flair through poetry recitation as well as real-time poetry composition. Students mesmerized the audience with their self-composed verses, powerful voice modulation, and expressive performances. The enthusiastic participants included Harshi (Class 5C), Anukriti (Class 6B), Kavya Madaan (Class 6B), Cherasvi (Class 6B), Matrika (Class 6C), Aradhya (Class 8B), and Nadar (Class 8B). The real-time composition round brought out their quick-thinking skills, as participants crafted meaningful poetry on the spot.

Outcome of the Activity:

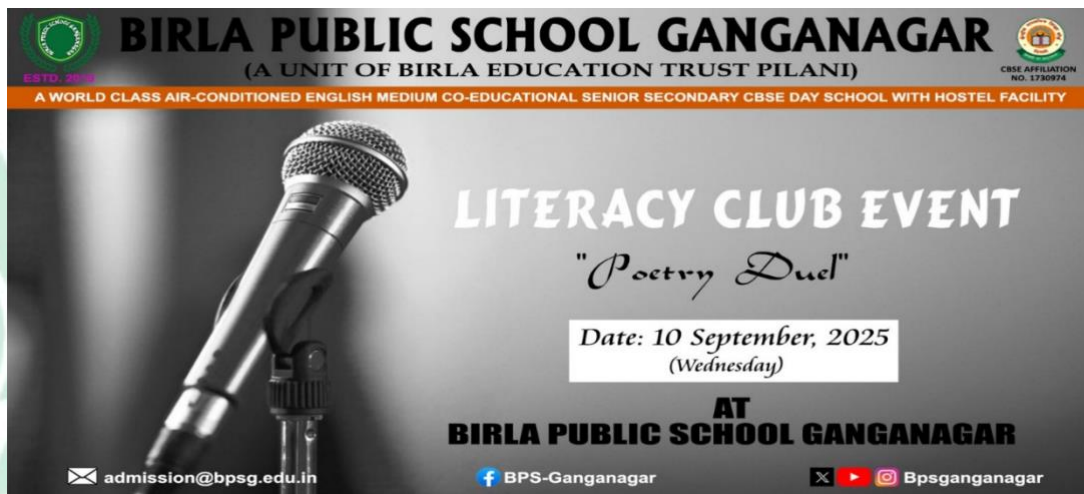

The event successfully nurtured literary creativity among students, enhancing their confidence, clarity of speech, and ability to engage an audience. It also encouraged them to think critically and compose impromptu verses, strengthening both their creative and linguistic skills.

Result:

All participants displayed exceptional creativity and originality in their poems. Their engaging recitations and spontaneous compositions reflected confidence and depth of thought. The event concluded with applause and appreciation, marking it as a grand success and reinforcing the essence of poetic expression.
