Birla Public School Ganganagar Weaves Words into Victory at English Pentangular - Season 5: Chapter 1

Birla Public School Ganganagar proudly marked its presence at the English Pentangular - Season 5: Chapter 1, hosted on Saturday, 26 July 2025, at Birla Balika Vidyapeeth, Pilani, under the esteemed umbrella of the Birla Education Trust. The event brought together budding talents from BET schools to engage in spirited and intellectually enriching English language competitions.

The programme commenced with a grand inauguration ceremony graced by the Chief Guest, Major General S. S. Nair, AVSM, Director, Birla Education Trust, Pilani. The occasion began with the ceremonial lighting of the lamp by the Chief Guest, along with principals of all BET schools and other dignitaries, symbolizing the onset of knowledge and enlightenment. This was followed by a briefing on the general rules and structure of the competition. Participants were then directed to their respective venues for various events. Competitions unfolded in full fervor across different categories, showcasing the oratory, literary, and creative prowess of the students. After a day filled with vibrant performances and enthusiastic participation, everyone reassembled for the eagerly awaited result declaration and award ceremony. This edition of the Pentangular featured a wide spectrum of events under both Closed and Open categories, including Poetry Recitation, Extempore, Role Play, Storytelling, Essay Writing, Dictation, and Group Discussion. With the revised evaluation system of 200 points per event, the fest ensured fairer and more distinguished recognition of talent.

The students of Birla Public School Ganganagar stood tall with their outstanding performances and brought home numerous accolades.
