Campus Blossomed with the Warmth of Relationships”
“Under the Shade of Values: A Special Felicitation Ceremony for Grandparents”

Sriganganagar, 8 May 2026

Birla Public School Ganganagar celebrated Grandparents Day with great enthusiasm and joy on Friday, 8th May 2026. The successful event was organized under the guidance of Victory House, where the dedicated efforts of House Coordinator Mrs. Monika and her team were clearly reflected throughout the programme.

The ceremony commenced in a dignified manner. Retired Assistant Director of the Agriculture Department, Mr. Ram Pratap, graced the occasion as the Chief Guest, while young leader Mr. Aman Kadwasra attended as the Guest of Honour. At 9:00 a.m., the anchors warmly welcomed all the grandparents and guests. This was followed by the auspicious blowing of the conch shell and the ceremonial lamp lighting by the dignitaries. The school administration formally felicitated the Chief Guest and the Guest of Honour, filling the entire atmosphere with enthusiasm and respect.

The students of the school presented several heartfelt performances dedicated to their grandparents:

- Welcome Dance and Song: Students of Classes 7 and 8 presented the graceful “Swagatam-Swagatam” dance performance.
- Students of Zero Period emotionally touched everyone’s hearts with the song “Dear Grandparents Are the Most Precious.”
- Street Play and Message: Students of Class 6A presented a moving street play on the theme “Old Age Home,” while Class 6C performed a skit inspired by the movie Baghban, conveying strong family values and emotional bonding.
- Group Song: Boys of Classes 8A and 8B performed “Tumse Hai Mere Khwabon Ka Jahan.”
- Games for Grandparents – Round 1
- Group Dance: Class 6B performed “Dadi Maa, Dadi Maa Pyari Pyari Dadi Maa.”
- Group Dance: Girls of Classes 7A and 8A mesmerized the audience with their energetic Punjabi Giddha performance titled “Punjabi Giddha Queens.”
- Hindi Poem Recitation: Aarav Jain of Class 6A delivered a beautiful poem.
- Games for Grandparents – Round 2
- Dance Performance: Girls of Class 7B presented “Ashiyana Mera Saath Tere Hai Na.”
- Games for Grandparents – Round 3

- English Poem Recitation: Rajpal of Class 7B presented an impressive English poem.
- Skit and Dance: Class 6C once again captivated the audience with their Baghban-based presentation.
- Special Expressions: Yuven Bansal and Rajpal expressed their affection and gratitude through speeches and poems.

Around 130 grandparents attended the celebration. Special group games were organized for them, in which they participated enthusiastically and relived the joyful memories of their childhood. Witnessing the wonderful performances of their grandchildren filled their eyes with pride and happiness.

The programme was conducted under the inspiring guidance and leadership of Principal Dr. Nitesh Kumar Singh, who highlighted the importance and invaluable contribution of grandparents in shaping family values and society. Vice Principal Mrs. Sushila Saharan and Mrs. Akanksha Khullar also extended their wholehearted support, adding dignity and grace to the event. The dignitaries appreciated the efforts of the students and congratulated everyone for making the celebration memorable and meaningful.
