EVENT REPORT

Day & Date-14.7.26 (Tuesday)

Class –X A

Event Name: “Social Justice : Symposium”

Category: General

Objective of the Activity:

The primary objective of the Social Justice Symposium was to create awareness among students about the importance of equality, human rights, social justice, and civic responsibility. The activity aimed to encourage students to understand issues such as discrimination, fair distribution of resources, and the rights and responsibilities of citizens. It also sought to develop critical thinking, creativity, communication skills, and empathy while inspiring students to become responsible citizens committed to promoting justice, inclusiveness, and social harmony.

Total no. of Students: 36

No. of Participants: 32

Absentees- 04

Brief note about Activity:

Students actively participated by preparing posters, charts, slogans, and short presentations on themes such as equality, human rights, fighting discrimination, and fair resource distribution. Many participants enriched their work with relevant facts, historical case studies, data, maps, diagrams, and practical solutions to social issues. Eco-friendly and recycled materials were widely used for creating charts and posters. Each student confidently delivered a 1-2 minute presentation, effectively explaining their ideas and demonstrating a thoughtful understanding of the topic. The activity was conducted successfully in the respective classrooms with enthusiastic participation from all students.

Outcomes of Activities:

The activity enhanced students' understanding of social justice, equality, and human rights while strengthening their awareness of civic responsibilities. Students developed empathy towards marginalized communities and gained a deeper appreciation for the values of fairness, inclusion, and respect for diversity. The event also improved their research, creativity, communication, and presentation skills. By proposing practical solutions to societal issues and using sustainable materials in their projects, students demonstrated critical thinking, environmental consciousness, and a commitment to becoming responsible and socially aware citizens.

Result: (Best students)

The event focused on active participation and learning rather than competition. All students participated enthusiastically and were appreciated equally for their efforts and contribution.
